Summary

As the former Chief Technology Officer (CTO) at Profcyma Solutions, I led the development and implementation of the company's technology strategy, aligning it with business goals and market demands. With over 11 years of experience in technology-driven initiatives for various industries, I have a strong background in web and mobile development, software architecture, and project management.

I am passionate about driving innovation and fostering a culture of creativity, continuously exploring emerging technologies and evaluating their potential for business impact. I have successfully executed key technology projects, resulting in enhanced operational efficiency, digital transformation, and customer satisfaction. I have also implemented robust cybersecurity measures to protect sensitive data and ensure compliance with industry regulations. My mission is to build habitat supporting systems for the next billion people, leveraging the opportunities of Industry 4.0.
